

Australian Government

Tertiary Education Quality and Standards Agency

Do your own work.

Providing academic cheating services to students at Australian institutions is against the law.

Do not write essays, complete assignments or sit exams for other students.

You risk criminal prosecution including 2 years in prison and up to $110,000 in fines.

Remember: If you are having trouble with your assignments, contact your lecturer or tutor for help.

CHEATING is NEVER
the RIGHT ANSWER

TEQSA
teqsa.gov.au/cheating