

Application Guide for initial registration as a new higher education provider

Including related course accreditation applications

Version 3.16

Use this guide when applying to be registered as a higher education provider for the first time.

This guide should be read before you submit your application through TEQSA's online portal. Note: TEQSA portal access will only be granted to a prospective provider once TEQSA deems a provider's impending application to be sufficiently developed.

Section A: Background

Purpose

This guide provides information about the process new providers need to follow when applying to the Tertiary Education Quality and Standards Agency (TEQSA) to be registered as a higher education provider for the first time. It covers applications for:

- initial registration, and
- initial course accreditation.

Applications from new providers are considered under Part 3, Division 1 of the Tertiary Education Quality and Standards Agency Act 2011 (TEQSA Act). Applications for course accreditation are considered under Part 4 of the TEQSA Act.¹

Each new provider will need to demonstrate that they meet the relevant Standards contained in Part A of the Higher Education Standards Framework (Threshold Standards) 2021 (HES Framework). All new providers need to meet all the criteria for the Higher Education Provider Category (Part B1.1), and new providers applying for one of the University categories (Parts B1.1-1.4) will need to meet the additional criteria for the relevant categories.

An application for registration as a higher education provider must be accompanied by an application for accreditation of at least one course of study.

The Standards and corresponding evidence requirements that apply to an initial application for registration and course accreditation are outlined in the tables of evidence in Appendix A of this guide. Appendix A Table 1 identifies the relevant Standards that apply for initial registration when compared to an initial course accreditation application.

Application-specific evidence requirements will be documented by TEQSA in the form of the Confirmed Evidence Table for Registration and the Confirmed Evidence Table for Initial Course Accreditation. These Confirmed Evidence Tables will be sent to you. The TEQSA financial forecast template will also be sent to you.

For assistance in understanding the requirements of the HES Framework, new providers should refer to the guidance on TEQSA's website in the first instance, which includes an overview of each Domain of the HES Framework and detailed guidance notes on particular topics (<https://www.teqsa.gov.au/how-we-regulate/higher-education-standards-framework-2021/contextual-overview>).

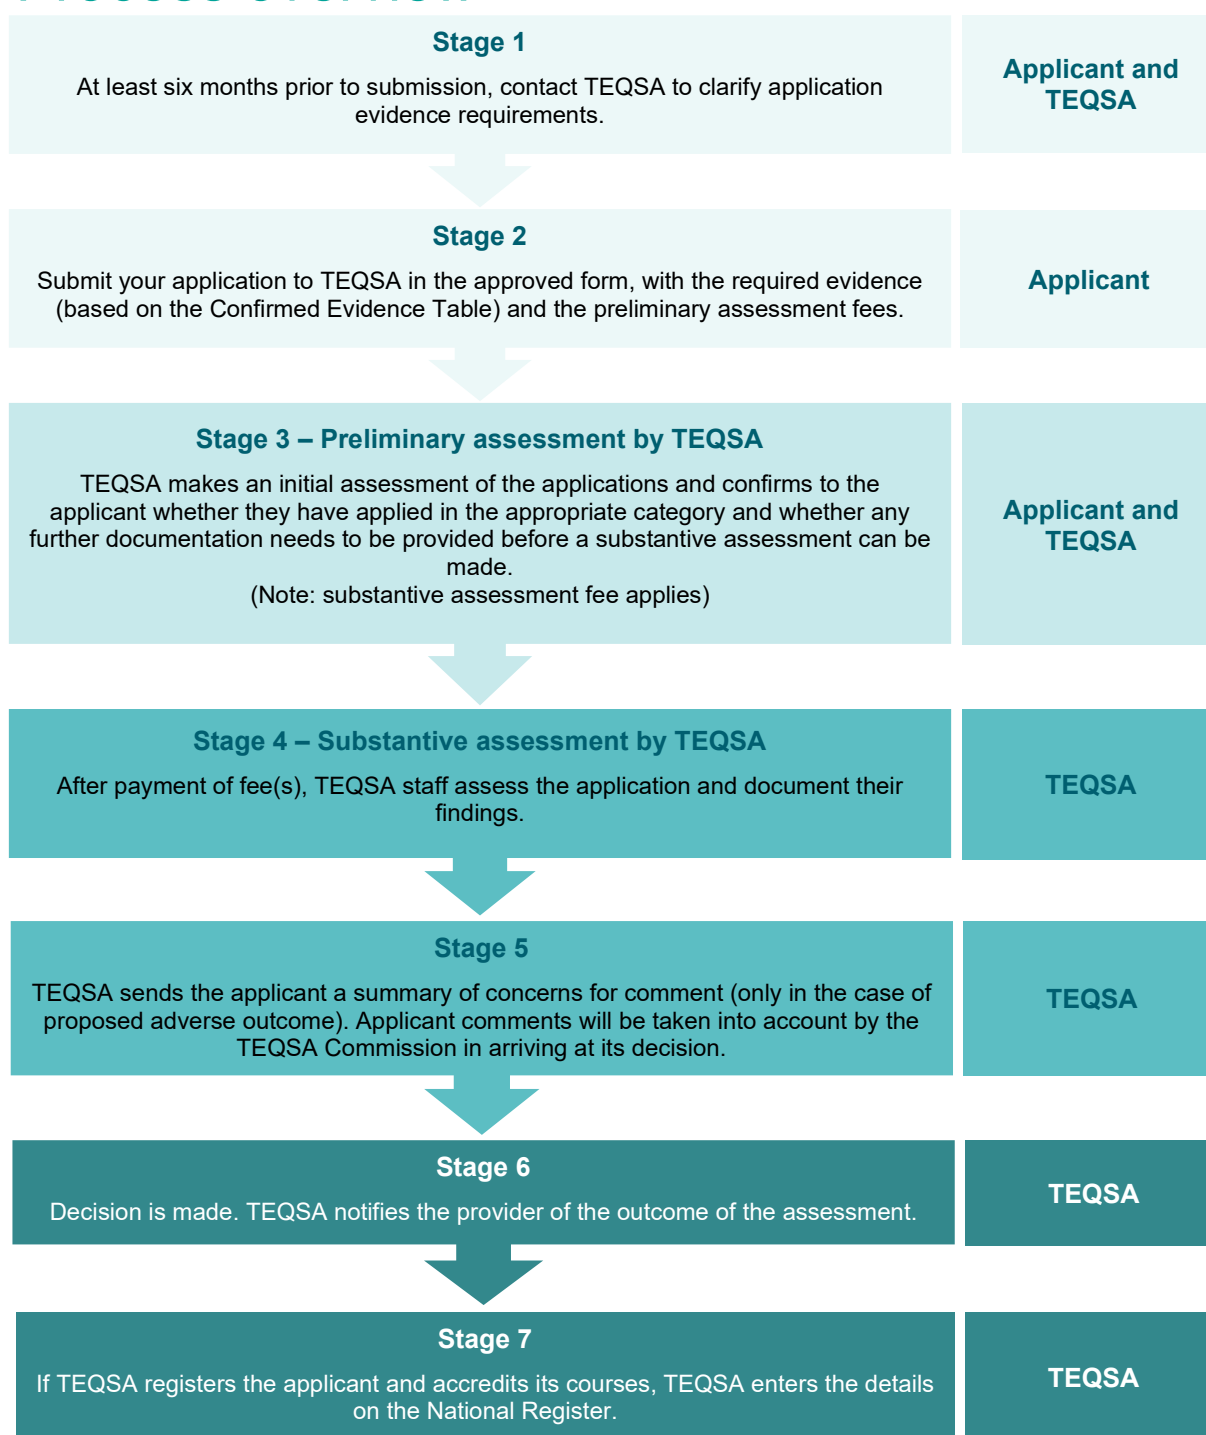

University categories

There is a related application guide for new providers wishing to apply for registration in one of the university categories. New providers must read this guide and consult TEQSA before preparing an application for registration in a university category for the first time.

Section B: Application process overview

Process overview

Stage 1: Clarify application requirements

1.1 Pre-submission liaison

It is essential to contact TEQSA at least six months before starting to prepare applications for initial registration and course accreditation, using the new.registration.enquiries@teqsa.gov.au mailbox.

TEQSA will respond to your enquiry and provide further information to guide the development of your applications. Follow up enquiries to support the development of your applications should also be made using the new.registration.enquiries@teqsa.gov.au mailbox.

Approximately three months prior to submitting your applications, contact TEQSA to arrange a pre-submission meeting. The purpose of this meeting is to discuss your plans and progress, and raise any queries relating to the finalisation of your applications. After the pre-submission meeting, TEQSA will send you an application form for access to the provider portal, through which you will be able to submit your applications, including supporting evidence.

1.2 Evidence requirements

All applications for registration and course accreditation should include specific items of evidence with reference to the generic lists in Tables 2-4 in Appendix A. Providers should note that the lists of evidence in the tables are indicative. TEQSA will establish a final list of evidence for each application using the Confirmed Evidence Table for Registration and the Confirmed Evidence Table for Initial Course Accreditation. The tables of evidence are quite extensive, as TEQSA will not have any prior experience with your organisation to draw on.

The tables cover:

- Criteria for Classification of Higher Education Provider Categories
- Applicable Standards for Registration, and
- Applicable Standards for Course Accreditation.

There will be separate online application forms in the portal to complete and submit for registration and for each course accreditation. These forms are structured around the relevant Standards for each application. In general, plans, policies and procedures will be most relevant to the application for registration, whereas course-specific information will be relevant to the applications for course accreditation. For example, admissions policies and procedures will be assessed in relation to the application for registration, whereas information about selection criteria for specific courses would be included in course documentation and assessed in relation to an application for course accreditation. Appendices D and E list additional information and evidence you will be required to enter into the online forms for the registration and course accreditation applications.

1.3 Applications for CRICOS registration

Applications for CRICOS registration are normally made after registration as a higher education provider has been approved. To be approved for registration on CRICOS, a provider must provide evidence that it meets the requirements of the Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000 (ESOS Act) and the National Code of Practice for Registration Authorities and Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students 2018 (National Code). For further information or assistance, please refer to the How to apply for CRICOS registration page, or contact the CRICOS team at cricos@teqsa.gov.au.

Stage 2: Submit application to TEQSA

2.1 Submitting your application

The provider portal makes it easy for you to develop your applications, allowing you to work on them progressively online and submit them to TEQSA when you have finished. You can generate a PDF version of your application at any time to see how your application is progressing. You can edit your evidence (including by deleting documents) in any section, up until your application is submitted. You can also respond to information requests from TEQSA and submit any additional evidence via the portal.

In your applications, you are encouraged to provide URLs and hyperlinks to your website and learning management systems (LMS). It is expected that the basis for much of your evidence will be documentation that will be used for internal purposes, and that documentation is not developed only for the purposes of your submission to TEQSA. The portal acts as a document repository and you may be able to use documents saved to the portal again in future TEQSA applications, where they are still current.

When your applications are complete, you must submit them to TEQSA via the provider portal. Be sure to include:

- your required information and evidence
- the completed Confirmed Evidence Table for each application, updated by you with the document titles/URL details for the specific evidence provided in the online form. Such evidence should use the naming conventions described in the guidance note on Naming Conventions for Evidence (available on TEQSA's website as well as in the online application form), and
- a signed declaration.

After you submit your application you will receive an itemised invoice as final confirmation of your application and request for payment. Note that TEQSA does not have an online payment facility.

TEQSA will only start assessing your application after it has been submitted and TEQSA has received your application fees. Once your applications have been submitted and fees paid, you will be assigned an Assessment Manager.

Ensure that your application includes:

- all required evidence as outlined in your Confirmed Evidence Tables
- clearly labelled evidence (i.e. documents and/or URL links using the naming conventions described in the guidance note on Naming Conventions for Evidence) so that TEQSA can easily locate and reference them, and
- references to relevant sections in longer documents.

You can find supporting material about applying for initial registration and course accreditation on TEQSA's website (<https://www.teqsa.gov.au/provider-registration/initial-provider-registration-applications>). You can find supporting material relating to the new HES

Framework at: <https://www.teqsa.gov.au/how-we-regulate/higher-education-standards-framework-2021/contextual-overview>.

2.2 Payment of assessment fees

In order for assessment of both your registration and course accreditation applications to commence, you must pay your assessment fee(s) when you receive an invoice from TEQSA. A fee is payable at both the preliminary assessment stage and at the substantive assessment stage. These fees are not refundable in the event that an applicant withdraws the application. The application fees do not attract GST. A fee schedule is available at: <https://www.teqsa.gov.au/about-us/fees-and-charges>.

TEQSA's ABN is: 50 658 250 012.

Stage 3: Preliminary assessment

TEQSA will undertake a preliminary assessment to check if you have provided all the required evidence as outlined in Stage 1. Within 30 calendar days of receiving your application and your preliminary assessment fee, your Assessment Manager will advise you whether your application (including the required evidence) is complete. The application will only be valid, and TEQSA will only proceed to the substantive assessment stage, where the requirements of sections 18(3) and 46(2) of the TEQSA Act are met. These sections state that applications for registration within a particular provider category and for initial course accreditation must be:

- in the approved form (the online application form provided in the TEQSA provider portal), and accompanied by:
 - any information, documents and assistance that TEQSA requests, and
 - the relevant fee.

Note that a complete application for registration must be accompanied by an application for accreditation of at least one course of study.

You will then need to decide whether to proceed with the application process. If you decide to proceed, the substantive assessment fee must be paid.

If TEQSA determines that an application is not valid, you will be informed of the reason(s) and provided with the opportunity to address the concern(s).

Stage 4: Substantive assessment

TEQSA will undertake a substantive assessment of your applications upon receipt of your substantive application fee. TEQSA Assessment Managers will use a range of methods to ascertain whether the evidence submitted confirms that the applicant meets the relevant Threshold Standards. TEQSA may assess the application against all registration standards and category criteria in the HES Framework or, where TEQSA considers that a decision is capable of being made on an assessment of a subset of these Standards, TEQSA may assess the application against particular Standards.

4.1 Requests for further information

In some cases, TEQSA may request further information, documents, or assistance during the substantive assessment stage as questions arise. For example, your Assessment Manager may need to clarify aspects of your evidence or documentation or how certain policies and procedures will be implemented in practice.

4.2 Use of experts

TEQSA may obtain input from a number of external experts to inform the analysis of specific parts of the application and where appropriate, to assist TEQSA to prepare draft findings.

Experts' reports form part of the evidence TEQSA will consider in its assessment process and decision making.

Wherever TEQSA uses external experts as part of the assessment process, you will be given an opportunity to state whether you consider any of the experts as having a conflict of interest in relation to your application. TEQSA will take this into account before engaging any experts.

4.3 Provider visits

TEQSA may visit one or more of your proposed delivery sites or headquarters. At this visit, TEQSA may inspect facilities, equipment and resources, or clarify how relevant procedures, policies and operations are to be implemented. Provider visits are a mechanism for collecting evidence, and TEQSA will use observations and discussions held at a provider visit in its assessment and decision making to supplement or validate your written evidence. At the provider visit, TEQSA may interview various groups including staff and members of corporate and academic boards.

Your Assessment Manager will consult with you in advance to:

- clarify the scope of assessment to be covered during the provider visit(s)
- ensure the date, timing and length of the visit(s) are appropriate
- share a program for the visit(s) and refine it with you
- arrange appropriate logistics, including the availability of key stakeholders, such as teaching staff, academic managers, and external advisors for the course of study.

Stage 5: Findings and recommendations

At the conclusion of the assessment, an assessment report is prepared that includes recommendations to the TEQSA Commission about your application for registration. Reports are also prepared for the application(s) for course accreditation.

If an assessment report recommends that the TEQSA Commission:

- reject an application, or
- approve an application but impose conditions,

TEQSA will send you the report(s) for comment before TEQSA Commission makes a decision. The assessment report will include the reasons for the proposed decision. TEQSA may also send you relevant evidence you might not have previously seen, such as findings from any external experts used.

Stage 6: Commission decision

The TEQSA Commission will consider the recommendations arising from an assessment.

In reaching a decision, the TEQSA Commission will take into account the three basic principles for regulation outlined in the Process notes section of this guide.

The TEQSA Commission may decide to:

- approve an application
- approve an application and impose conditions on the registration and/or course accreditation, or
- reject an application.

Where a recommendation to reject an application or impose conditions is made, the TEQSA Commission will take into account any comments or information you have provided regarding the assessment report.

6.1 Notifying you of the decision

TEQSA will send you a notice of decision within 30 calendar days of making a decision to grant or reject your application, which will include the details of any conditions placed on your registration or course accreditation(s). In some cases, TEQSA may also request further information in relation to the monitoring of your ongoing compliance with the HES Framework and/or may notify you of areas that may be explored further in future regulatory processes.

TEQSA may also make observations about areas for improvement to support quality enhancement.

If an application has been rejected, or if conditions have been imposed on your registration or course accreditation(s), the notice of decision will be accompanied by a statement of reasons.

6.2 Review of decisions

Processes are in place to review certain decisions made by TEQSA. More information about reviews of decisions is at: www.teqsa.gov.au/for-providers/provider-obligations/review-teqsa-decisions.

Stage 7: TEQSA updates the National Register

7.1 Public report

TEQSA normally publishes reports of decisions about provider registration and course accreditation to facilitate transparency of TEQSA's processes, regulatory decisions and the reasons for those decisions.

A public report contains TEQSA's decision and the reasons for the decision. This report is published on the National Register of Higher Education Providers after TEQSA has considered any feedback you may have given on a draft version provided to you.

TEQSA's policy on public reports is available at: www.teqsa.gov.au/media-publications/policy-public-reporting-regulatory-decisions.

7.2 Updating the National Register

Where an application for an initial registration and course accreditation has been approved, a new entry will be made in the National Register of Higher Education Providers in the approved category. Where conditions are imposed on the registration of a provider and/or its courses, details of those conditions will also be published.

Updates to the National Register are published at least monthly and can be viewed at <https://www.teqsa.gov.au/national-register>.

Process notes

Assessment management approach

TEQSA will assign a particular staff member or members to assess an application once the application has entered the substantive assessment stage. Refer to the TEQSA Provider Registration Quick Process Guide for further information.

Regulatory principles

Part 2 of the TEQSA Act requires TEQSA to comply with three basic principles of regulation, namely the principles of: regulatory necessity, reflecting risk and proportionate regulation. These principles underpin TEQSA's decisions in relation to applications for registration or course accreditation.

Assessment timeframes

TEQSA will ordinarily advise you of the outcome of its assessment within nine months of payment of the substantive assessment fee. TEQSA will aim to complete the assessment within six months. However, this timeframe may be shorter or longer, subject to a range of factors that can impede or assist the process, such as:

- a provider's known regulatory history including with other agencies such as ASQA, a provider's related entities' regulatory histories or outcomes of previous assessments directly relevant to the application
- the strength and relevance of evidence presented by the provider
- the risk of non-compliance with the HES Framework and the ability of the provider to mitigate those risks
- the time taken by the provider to respond effectively to requests for information, and
- the level of resourcing available to TEQSA.

Confidentiality and accuracy of information

TEQSA has statutory obligations in relation to confidentiality; however, it operates within a public accountability framework. Where a prospective higher education provider considers that its information should be treated as confidential by TEQSA the provider should contact TEQSA (new.registration.enquiries@teqsa.gov.au) or the TEQSA Assessment Manager (once assigned) before providing the information. More information about TEQSA's approach to confidential information can be found at: <https://www.teqsa.gov.au/latest-news/publications/information-sheet-teqsas-approach-confidential-information>.

Please note that providing false or misleading information in an application is a serious offence under the TEQSA Act.

Appendix B – Overviews

Overviews are designed to orient TEQSA staff and external experts to the evidence being presented, how it fits together, and how it ensures that a provider will meet the requirements in one or more sections of the HES Framework. Each overview should be no more than two A4 pages long, except in the case of Domain 6 - Governance and Accountability, which can have up to two pages per section.

Each overview should be structured with the following headings:

1. Objective: what are these arrangements designed to achieve?
2. Framework: describe the framework of policies and procedures that are being put in place, pointing out the key features.
3. Resources (if applicable): what resources are being put in place to support achievement of the objective? Note any capital allocations and timelines of development.
4. Rationale: explain how the framework and the resources will ensure that the objective is achieved and the relevant Standards are met.

Appendix C – Course proposal: Required elements

Course proposals should include:

- rationale (including expected graduate employment opportunities) qualifications to be awarded on completion
- admissions criteria
- course learning outcomes, methods of assessment and indicative student workload, and national/international comparators (consistent with Standards 1.4.1-3 and 1.4.5-7 (if applicable))
 - rationale for relationship between learning outcomes, AQF level specifications, unit learning outcomes and unit assessment and summary table mapping this alignment
- structure, duration and modes of delivery (in particular identifying any subjects delivered 100% online or by distance learning, i.e. not fully onsite or blended)
- list of units of study (indicate whether compulsory or elective)
- compulsory requirements for completion
- exit pathways, articulation arrangements, pathways to further learning
- requirements for the course to be professionally accredited/registered in order for graduates to gain work in the profession in Australia, and details of arrangements with professional bodies for such professional accreditation/registration
- research content (for Bachelor Honours, Masters or Doctoral qualifications)
- planned staffing complement, showing qualifications and experience of course coordinator and for all teaching positions as required by Standard 3.2.3, and:
 - resumes for any staff already engaged
 - position descriptions for positions not yet filled
 - evidence of equivalent academic or professional experience relevant to policy criteria, and
 - arrangements for oversight of staff who do not fully meet Standard 3.2.3.
